

I am outraged that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its stations to air "Stolen Honor" -- an anti-Kerry piece of propaganda -- days before the election. What has happened to the concept of "equal time"? The media has a serious responsibility to US citizens in this regard. I would like to see those Sinclair stations that broadcast the smear campaign "Stolen Honor" be required to air "Fahrenheit 911" in the same uninterrupted format, for the same period of time, and bill it also as a "documentary."

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, it should be obligated to serve the public interest -- not the ideology (and financial interests) of its owners.
